Genoa, May 14. N. S.

NINE Veſſels belonging to this Republick arrived here Yeſterday, in Twenty three Days from Barcelona, and in Ten from Port Mahon. They came with an Engliſh and Dutch Fleet which are arriv'd at Vado. The Imperial Recruits are march'd to Final, which will be follow'd by other Troops, as well as thoſe which were employ'd in the reduction of Fort of Philippo and Porto Ercole, and will embark there with all expedition for Barcelona.

Venice, May 20. N. S. They write from Rome, that the Pope had received the Reſolutions of his Imperial Majeſty, that he will not ſuffer his Ambaſſador to give Place to the Governor of Rome, nor that the Mail, with Letters from Vienna, ſhould be ſent to the Cuſtom-houſe to be opened, and he has forbid the Pope's Nuncio to mention the Pretenſions of any ſuch Proceedings any more to him for the future. The Pope has ſummoned the Italian Cardinals to appear at the Canonization of the new Saints, which he deſigns to make in the Church of St. Peter's. The Cardinal della Santa Croce died upon the Twelfth Inſtant, by which there is now an Eighteenth Place become vacant in the College of Cardinals. We have received Advice from ſeveral Parts, that the Peace between the Ottoman Port and his Czariſh Majeſty is confirmed, and that a Turkiſh Commiſſary was ſent to Bender, and the Muſcovite Hoſtages had permiſſion to depart from Conſtantinople. This Republick continues under no apprehenſions of a Rupture with the Ottoman Port: However, to ſupply their Garriſons in the Morea, on Tueſday laſt the Regiment of Roſſi paſs'd the review at the Lido, and is preparing to embark on board the new Convoy deſigned for the Levant. The Fair of the Aſcenſion, at which there has been a great Appearance of Perſons of Diſtinction, will end to Morrow. The Earl of Peterborough will be upon his departure from hence very ſpeedily.

Vienna, May 21. N. S. Upon Wedneſday laſt his Imperial Majeſty departed from this Place for Hungary with a numerous Train of the Nobility, and lay the ſame Night at a Caſtle nam'd Petronel, belonging to Count Traun, Mareſchal of the Lower Auſtria: Being arrived at Woolfſtall upon the Frontiers, he was receiv'd by ſome Deputies of the States, and at ſome diſtance was met by the whole Body, and mounting on Horſeback, paſs'd the Danube on a Bridge of Boats, and made his publick Entrance into Presburg about Three in the Afternoon, under a triple Diſcharge of the Cannon, and with all other dutiful and uſual Solemnities by the Magiſtrates and Inhabitants. The next Day his Majeſty came to the General Diet of the States of Hungary, and being ſeated on the Throne in the Royal Robes of that Kingdom, with great Solemnity, he made them the accuſtomed Propoſitions, which were anſwered with all Reſpect and Duty.

Hamburg, May 31. N. S. The Letters from Poland import, that among other Articles between the Czar and the Ottoman Port, it is agreed, That his Czariſh Majeſty ſhall withdraw his Troops from the Kingdom of Poland, as likewiſe from the Ukrain, and all the Provinces which depend upon it; and that the Poliſh Ukrain, ſhall continue in its former State, without any Damage hereafter to be done, to the Places or Inhabitants; and that the Muſcoviaes ſhall evacuate Bialaczerkiow, and all the other Fortreſſes in which they now have Garriſons, and reſtore them to the Crown of Poland. The Daniſh Troops which had their Winter Quarters in Holſtein, have received Orders to begin their March upon the Twentieth of the next Month, and as they give out, they will paſs thorough the Dutchy of Mechlenburg, to open the Campaign with the Siege of Wiſmar, whilſt Prince Menzikoff is to undertake that of Stetin with the Muſcovite and Saxon Forces; and that the afore-mention'd Prince, has ſent a Meſſage by one of his Aides de Camp to King Auguſtus, to preſs him, purſuant to his Treaties with the Northern Confederates, to furniſh him ſpeedily with ſuch Artillery as is neceſſary for the latter of theſe Expeditions.

From the Camp at Solemes, June 1. N. S. On Monday laſt Lieutenant-General Cadogan was ſent out by his Grace the Duke of Ormond, with Seven hundred Horſe and One thouſand Huſſars, to view the Ground about Landrecy and Queſnoy, and having advice upon his return, that Two hundred of the Enemies Foot were poſted in a Wood, he diſmounted part of his Men, who Attack'd the Enemy, killed Twenty of them, and took Forty Priſoners, with two Lieutenants, and the Captain who Commanded them. Seventy of the Enemies Huſſars came Yeſterday Morning to the Left of our Horſe, and One hundred of our Men being out at the ſame time, fell upon the Enemy, killed Five and twenty of them, and brought in the reſt, with their Officers, Priſoners, together with all their Horſes.

From the Camp at Solemes, June 4. N. S. The Right Wing of the Horſe and Foot of our Army being commanded Yeſterday by his Grace the Duke of Ormond, made a Forage in the Front, between Chateau Cambreſis, and Buſſigny, with a Guard of Five hundred Horſe and Three hundred Foot commanded by the Marquis of Harwich, and the Body returned without any Loſs in the Evening. This Day the Left Wing of our Horſe were commanded to Forage between Buſſigny and Marrais, which is nearer to the Source of the Schelde. The Squadrons of the Enemy which were ſent to the Source of the Schelde, are now returned to their Camp, and the Confederate Armies on both ſides continue in their former Situation.

Falmouth, May 14. Yeſterday Sail'd the Reſolution Packet-Boat, Capt. Hales Commander, with two Mails, and an Expreſs from Lisbon; as alſo the Hallifield-Gally, with Fiſh, &c. for Leghorn. Her Majeſty's
